THE KINGSTON CULTURAL ART EXCHANGE

The KCAE is a collaboration between Earth to Spirit Fair Trade Co. and students from the Queen's School of Business. Their goal is to bring exciting young artists from around the world to share their creative talents and experiences with the Canadian people.

This year, we chose young acclaimed stone sculptors from Zimbabwe, Tutani Mgbazi and his wife Applonia. They have been staying as our guests during August & September, giving sculpture demonstrations in Confederation Park and on Queen's Campus.
